

The First Northumberland Day
Sunday May 28th 2017
7.30 p.m. prompt

Slaley is going to host a Community Amusement Tournament. We are looking for teams of 4 people, there will be 10 minute games for your team and 10 minute games for members of your team to play against members of other teams. Sixteen games in total. We will have a Northumbrian themed refreshment break and the bar will be stocked with Northumbrian drink. There will be Northumbrian prizes for the winning team and there will be a Northumbrian themed raffle. The Hall is limited to 128 people that is only 32 teams so if you want to join the fun register your team with Pat Wilson on pat.wilson28@outlook.com. The entrance fee will be £5 per head and the proceeds will be divided equally between Ladycross Nature Reserve and Slaley Commemoration Hall toilet refurbishment fund. Below some of the games we will be playing.
